

All our friends,

From all of us at INFOR, we hope you are healthy and adjusting to this temporary reality. These certainly are unprecedented times, but we want you to know that the INFOR team is here for you. We are in constant contact with a wide range of business leaders and government officials. As such, we understand how they are reacting to the current environment.

We are also spending a lot of time with our clients helping them navigate near term business and operational issues; everything from dealing with banks and other capital providers, to accessing resources from EDC, BDC and other government authorities, to dealing with employees, landlords, vendors and other stakeholders.

Since our inception in 2015, our commitment to helping Canadian businesses and entrepreneurs has been unwavering. In this time of need, we have bolstered our network of advisors to include Viren Joshi, former Global Accounts Director at Export Development Canada, to help INFOR navigate the rapidly changing borrowing landscape with our clients. In addition to Viren's multi-decade experience at EDC, our newly formed financial relief team is comprised of multiple professionals with strong fundamental backgrounds and decades of experience helping Canadian businesses navigate periods of uncertainty:

If you own, manage or are employed by a Canadian business, we are here to help. In a period of so much uncertainty, control what you can. Where you need assistance, please send us an email or pick up the phone and call. We remain fully staffed in our new remote environment and are always available to provide additional support to help you and your firm navigate through the current environment.

Yours Truly,
